All,

I asked Amy Legare yesterday if the Region should comment on the "draft 3" NRRB comments on West Lake, and her reply is below. With another draft in the works, I think we should hold off. I don't know if the next draft will be the "final" draft or just another intermediate draft.

Sincerely,

Hi Dan - Your choice. You and your team can weigh in now if you'd like. I think the recommendations are still rather muddled and could benefit from more work. I know that the waste characterization recommendation is being rewritten. The next draft should be in better shape.

The next draft will come out by 4/5, I hope. The Board has three reviews next week plus travel to the review so I set the deadline for comments at 4/4.
